KATY HOLDER is an experienced cook and food stylist and has worked with many high-profile chefs and magazines, in both Australia and the UK. Her previous title is Create & Decorate. She has always been passionate about cooking, and camping. She has camped all over the world, including the UK, France, Japan, Nepal and Australia. No matter where she is, plans for the next meal will never be far from her mind.

I got this book out from the library and found some excellent recipes to use and not just for camping, so much so that I decided to purchase it for my kindle so I can use the recipes again and again.

Good ideas for an easy "feed us" camping.

Can't wait to try most recipes out camping or at home. Well explained and written! Thrilled to have found it.

Love this book while travelling in our van, instead of having lots of cookbooks, I only need this one

Finally civilization comes to camping. If Stanley had this book in his kit, Dr Livingstone would have sought him out, saving Mr Stanley a long hike into the Congo. The recipes are simple yet sophisticated displaying the authors extensive knowledge of cooking. The ingredients are not the usual ones you'd take camping but there's no reason one shouldn't. The recipes are simple enough that no lengthy shopping list is needed , it's just a case of stocking the right stuff. The book is logically laid out , clear and concise directions and extensively illustrated. It's clear that these are all practical recipes that Ms Holder has used and perfected in the outdoors. The book is not for the minimalist through hiker (though they would benefit from the inspirations provided) but more for car campers. Yachtsmen would find the book extremely useful ,bearing in mind the difficulties of cooking in afloat. Those in need of a simple, quickly prepared yet sophisticated meal for unexpected guests will find this book a life (and reputation) saver.
