Synopsis

"...a futuristic thriller that grips the reader from the first page.... The narrative is tightly woven and compelling..." -Judge, 4th Annual Writer's Digest Self-Published e-Book Awards

Pepper McCallan doesn't expect to be needed so urgently by Brent Cahill while she and her husband, Bill, are island-hopping in the Caribbean. She was hoping for a break from her last counterterrorism mission, but Brent explains he needs her help to thwart a terrorist plot on America that incorporates nerve gas and drones. Russian President Volkov will use any means at his disposal, including another woman, to seduce and manipulate Svea Lovgren, a stunning Swedish diplomat. Svea, herself, doesn't think she's capable of falling--until she meets Dana. Are Dana's feelings genuine or only services she's providing for her master? As Pepper is drawn deeper into clandestine travel, Bill resumes his career as an orthopedic surgeon at Southview Hospital in Minneapolis. However, he unexpectedly finds himself at the center of a large scale disaster that has terrorist overtones. Brent cannot resist the sex appeal of Pepper's best friend, Jackie Starr, so cooks up a plan to win her heart while still sleuthing terrorist plots. Jackie has reservations, but can resist him only so long.

Bestselling Author, Alexi Venice, practiced law for 28 years until the novels within her had to be indulged their freedom and shared with readers. Her exciting legal cases inform her writing, in addition to her adventurous spirit, which has led her to fly jets, shoot assault rifles, wake board in the Caribbean, test her strength at CrossFit and get the crap beat out of her boxing. Venice, who used to live in San Francisco, is married and now spends most of her time in Wisconsin, when she isn&apos;t researching new book plots in exciting destinations. Her favorite pastimes include biking and playing with her duck tolling retrievers on the lake.Ã Â Venice&apos;s early works include the Pepper McCallan series, featuring a corporate lawyer-turned counterterrorism consultant. In 2017, Venice published Bourbon Chase, A Mystery, which is the first in a series set in San Francisco, featuring three, young, hot professionals: Dr. Jen Dawson, District Attorney Amanda Hawthorne and Detective Tommy Vietti.Ã Â In 2016, Venice surprised her readers by publishing a contemporary fantasy, AUSTRALIA&apos;S STARR. She explored both religion and politics in a depraved, yet vindicating, story about a young Australian woman who reluctantly fulfills the prophecy communicated to her father on the night of her birth.Ã Â Learn more about Alexi Venice at alexivenice.com or facebook.com/alexivenicenovels

Svea - what a villain! The characters are very likeable. I really looked forward to reading this book after the Ebola Vaccine Wars. I can't wait her next book - want to see what happens with a possible new romance! Overall great reading for an escape, it keeps your interest and the plot moves quickly and sometimes with unexpected turns. Well done!

Alexi has delivered another "hit". This was an excellent book. I found myself torn....my heart was racing and I was reading fast and furiously because I had to know what happened YET.....I wanted to start reading slower because I was almost at the end of the book and I didn't want it to end!!

Great Read! From good to evil, action and adventure and a "little bit" of romance thrown in! What is not to like about Alexi Venice. Can't wait for the next book

I wish the author had written several books before I discovered her as I would like to be binge reading the Pepper series. Please write faster Alexi!
