I bought this for a gift but I didn't want to part with it. I had hoped for more non-dessert recipes, but the desserts sounded wonderful. Nice pictures, clear instructions.

I saw this book at World Market and wanted to buy it twice. This is the Phoenix area and in the winter we are inundated with citrus fruit so I thought this would be a good recipe. Had some credit with . Bought it here. The book itself makes me think happy thoughts - just a nice cover and the recipes look great. I don't like cooking; but I like baking. I am taking this book everywhere because I like reading recipes. Think them through; think of how they will taste; then pick one. So I'll even start baking now when I have to go to a market to get citrus. Also, the book arrived in one day; ordered

Sunday; came Monday.

Squeeee - I always knew I had a thing for citrus but this book only confirmed this about myself. Gorgeous book. Lovely recipes. All citrus related as promised. I think it could have ventured out a bit further but I'm not complaining!

Found a number of recipes I am anxious to try that sound wonderful. Also, it has nice photographs of many recipes which I find very helpful in creating the final product.

Great recipes! LOVE the key lime bar one. It's also super pretty and I like that it is hardback.

Usually if I find 2 or 3 good recipes in a book then I feel it's worth paying for the book. In this book however I have yet to find a recipe that doesn't look good. Good history and illustrations too.

Love this book
