Great book for both my husband and I for basic stuff around our new hkm

I bought this as a joke gift for a new home owner. While looking through it before giving it away, I noticed that there is actually a lot of useful information in this book and it is laid out very nicely. Great gift for the new homeowners.

Everything you need to know about the unknown! Highly recommend for the first timers

Very good stuff! Love it!

This book was given as a gift. Before I gave this book to the person, I perused the pages. The book looks very interesting and I do enjoy listening to the Carey brothers on the radio. Their simple and easy way to fix things is nice to have on hand when something fails in the house. They always have
