Very good quality cards. The packaging is made of sturdy plastic. The pricing is decent. I gave four stars instead of five because the quantity is far less than what you can find elsewhere at similar cost. One awesome addition is the cards are also in spanish, this is unique and noteasy to find elsewhere. I guess in that respect you're getting two languages for the price of one.

These are wonderful flash cards for children or adults that are beginning to learn sign language.

Not many words for the amount of price

Emotions and Objects make the class more interesting in its colorful presentation with cards and easy to understand..

Excellent in keeping ASL skills in check.

Well done! Kids love them!

Disappointed it didn't have the box all of my other ones have :(

Great pics and size.
