Customer Reviews

Excellent book. True in so many ways. Well done.

This very personal, candid and courageous account of the author's journey through a living nightmare is so raw and agonising, I couldn't put it down. It made me cry and laugh and cry again. How lucky we women are who are safe, loved, respected, healthy and fortunate to live in a free society and culture that values us. I take my hat off to the author for her resilience and sanity through unimaginable hardship. A confronting and brave story, told so intimately.
