Some good reviews but as are all of this type of book - not enough detail - just general overviews - also content organization logical but a bit confusing - broken into sections (example, dining, and THEN broken down further into regions) - Would have preferred it the other way around - Broken into REGIONS then all choices (dining, lodging, entertainment, etc.) WITHIN that region

Very happy with this guidebook, especially like the sections on the Everglades, Art Deco architecture in Miami and the coverage of the Keys in detail. Actually taking it with me versus just reading it ahead of time and maybe copying a few pages!

Good condition, good service. Content as would have wished. Was helpful to me.

It gave me some pretty good tips about eateries and clubs.

Very helpful

ok

Difficult to maneuver when you are a traveler and trying to pinpoint info quickly. My kindle is black and white and does not show maps well. I would suggest book form for travelers.

For restaurants and accommodations, I prefer to use on line reviews as they are more up to date. But this is recent so it's reliable.
