Synopsis

A variety of animals parade by in this familiar jumprope alphabet song. The antics never quite quit as a parade of animals sell their wares in this wildly illustrated version of the familiar alphabet ditty and ball-bouncing game. Young readers will delight in meeting such characters as Barbara, the bear with balloons for sale in Brazil; New York Ned, the newt who owns a noodle emporium, and finally the zipper-selling Zambian zebra and zebu, Zelda and Zach.

I use this book in the classroom and then we write our own version using the students names.

Excellent language arts, art, communication, and sharing project.

Perfect.

This is a great book! It focuses on rhyming and has a great variety of animals, some that I have never heard of! The kids in my Daycare really like this story!

Would rather have it in hardback but that's ok. My twin granddaughters first book and she can pass it down to her first little girl. Shipping was ok too. Thanks

I use this book at the beginning of the school year.

Saw this book in a book drive I'm having at work and needed to get my own copy for the grandkids. Very cute and a great teaching tool!

I loved this book when I was little, so I had to buy it for my son! It's a great way for kids to learn the alphabet!

Fun book. I used it for a beginning of the year, get to know me activity with first graders. Parents loved our version
