Mary Fabyan Windeatt lived from 1910-1979 and grew up in Saskatchewan, Canada. The Mount Saint Vincent College awarded her a Licentiate of Music degree when she was just seventeen, and she began writing Catholic works when she was about twenty-four. Later she sent one of her stories to a Catholic magazine, and after it was accepted, she continued to write. In total she composed at least twenty-one children's books, as well as periodical children's pages written for The Torch, a monthly Dominican magazine. Mary Windeatt is most renowned for her many novels of the saints, which she wrote specifically for children, including lives on the Children of Fatima, Cure of Ars, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Rose of Lima and many others. After living with her mother in St. Meinrad, Indiana, she died on the twentieth of November, 1979.

Miss Windeatt is known for her engaging writing style and this book is a great example of her skill. She makes Saint Francis Solano come alive and brings the reader into the scene. I'd never heard of St. Francis prior to receiving this book as a gift but now I want to know more! Any of Miss Windeatt's books would be a great introduction to REAL heroes, but this one showcases a devout and humble man who gave his all for the Gospel. HIGHLY recommended.
