Wonderfully Made (Everyday Zoo)

Synopsis

“God gives all of us unique gifts. We just have to discover what they are.” Hayley the Hippo really wants to perform in the Everyday Zoo Talent Show. But she doesn’t fly like Gabby Goose, and she can’t spin a ball like Squirt the Seal. What is her talent? Just in time for the show, Hayley’s friends remind her that God loves everyone just as they are. Her talent could be right in front of her eyes!

K-Gr 2 This third installment in the series depicts the adorable, whimsical, wide-eyed, humanized zoo animals preparing for a talent show. Everyone, it seems, is endowed with a special aptitude except Hayley the Hippo. Friends offer support by telling her that she just has to find the talent God has given her. When Hayley, dressed in her polka-dot outfit, visits them, she uses her camera to capture their images as they practice for the event. Her attempts to replicate some of the acts she witnesses fail miserably. She can't flip a ball in the air like Squirt the Seal and breaks a lamp instead. Unlike Boyd, a giraffe, her magic act goes awry. Ice skating with Midge and Pidge, swan twins, ends in disaster. The hippo thinks God has forgotten to give her a talent, but it is right under her nose. She gets a standing ovation when, with the encouragement of her friends, she showcases her prints and realizes that she has been blessed with a flair for photography and with good friends. Illustrations in pastel colors fill the pages and entertain reader as they learn from this spiritual story. — Sandra Welzenbach, Villarreal Elementary School, San Antonio, TX (c) Copyright 2013. Joyce's Enjoying Everyday Life radio and television programs are broadcast around the world, and she travels extensively conducting conferences. Joyce and her husband, Dave, have four children and ten grandchildren and make their home in St. Louis, Missouri.

My daughter loves this book as it tells about how the hippo wishes she had the talents that others have then realizes she's always had a talent.

Favorite read, Great deal, quick shipping

Adorable book! My granddaughter loves it. I didn't know Joyce was writing childrens' books now. I will order more of these. Every child should feel wonderfully made.

very cute

This is a wonderful book showing how God gives each of us unique gifts, talents, to discover and use.

Perfect for the little ones. Love Joyce Meyer!

Kids all love this book. Ages 5 through 9.

Very good story
