Princeton Sermons: Outlines Of Discourses Doctrinal And Practical

Synopsis

Charles Hodge (1797-1878) was for over fifty years a Professor at Princeton Seminary during years when it was at the height of its spiritual greatness. This book contains the outlines of addresses given by him to the students on Sabbath afternoons, when they gathered in the Oratory 'for prayer and conference on themes relating to the life of God in the soul, and to the practical duties having their root therein.'

Customer Reviews

This book which contains the Princeton sermon outlines by Charles Hodge is wonderful and extremely useful. Each outline has deep nuggets of truth mined out from the Word. It is also a very good resource for pastors who might need some help on their sermon outlines, as Hodge is thoroughly detailed and focused in his preparation (just make sure you cite him if you use him!). You will not be disappointed with this treasure!
