Expedition To The Galapagos Islands

Synopsis

A young adventurer travels aboard the National Geographic Endeavour and shares his experiences as well as science facts and information about each bird, crustacean, fish, marine mammal, and reptile encountered on the journey. This nonfiction children's picture book and travel journal with full color photographs and illustrations is sure to entertain explorers of all ages. Discover detailed information about the Galápagos giant tortoise, blue-footed booby, Galápagos marine iguana, and Galápagos penguin in addition to other endemic and unique animals. Author, Grayson Rigby, is a partner with the Galápagos Conservancy, a highly rated nonprofit organization. A portion of the proceeds of each book sold is donated to the Conservancy to assist in ongoing research, conservation management, and education in the Galápagos Islands.

Customer Reviews

What a fabulous book! I ordered copies for my grandkids and ended up keeping one for myself! Very well written, beautiful pictures! Makes you want to book a trip to the Galápagos Islands immediately!

Beautiful Photographs and such a treat to read from an 8 year old's perspective! Stunning book.
Makes our family want to take this trip to the Galapagos!!!!
