Tom Howley has been the strength and conditioning coach at Cornell University since 1995. He oversees the design and implementation of athletic performance programs for 32 of Cornell's varsity sports. From 1991 to 1995, Howley was the assistant director of strength and conditioning at East Carolina University. While there, the Pirates participated in two football bowl games (the 1992

Peach Bowl and the 1995 Liberty Bowl), qualified for the 1994 NCAA baseball regional tournament, and played in the 1993 NCAA basketball tournament. From 1989 to 1991, Howley was a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach and assistant football coach at Auburn University, where he earned his master's degree in exercise physiology. During that time Auburn's football team was the 1989 Southeastern Conference co-champion, 1990 Hall of Fame Bowl champion, and 1991 Peach Bowl champion. In 1988 Howley earned a bachelor of arts degree in history from Tulane University, where he was a three-year letterman and two-year starting offensive lineman on the football team. As a senior he received the New Orleans Quarterback Club Student-Athlete Award.

This is exactly what i had been looking for. I am 33 years old. Haven't played LAX this my junior college days. I am playing adult LAX this spring 17' and this book has helped me in creating a productive work out schedule. The book explains everything in detail with photos. I bought the physical book so not sure how the Ereader version is. I recommend this book to anyone who is ready to take their LAX conditioning serious.
