Customer Reviews

From Students: . . . Easy to follow, practical advice A cool book. Match kept me organized Finding best fit schools means looking beyond just the most famous brand name schools. The task is overwhelming and this book can help. . . I love the many worksheets. . . . Having this book is like having more time with an informed college counselor College Match helped me find a great college! . . . --testimonials
From parents: . . . Think of this book as a compass that can guide you through the endless maze of college guidebooks and websites out there If you and your child use this book together it will help you zero in on the right college. It really takes the stress out of the college search. College Match is a value for its price. It s packed with helpful hints. It should be on every college hunter s bookshelf right from the beginning. I gave it as a gift to one of the high school students I mentor. Great tool in helping to implement a guided path for teens and young adults. . . --testimonials From college counselors: . . . This is a classic. We have based the college counseling curriculum at our school around Antonoff's College Match. Constantly updated, contains best resources for college planning I am a guidance counselor. Anything this author produces is first rate. . . --testimonials

Dr. Steven R. Antonoff is a nationally recognized educational consultant and popular speaker, trainer, and workshop leader. He is former Dean of Admission at the University of Denver.
