Amish Romance: Amish Imposter (Elsie's Story Book 2)

Synopsis

Is Matthew Bontrager in love with Elsie or not? She prays he is, but she can't be sure. For all she knows, he's still courting Marcy. Still, Elsie breaks off her engagement to James. How could she not, when it's Matthew she loves? James doesn't accept her decision, and when he chases after her, things quickly turn ugly. Becca Warren, the English girl that Elsie and her mammi are sheltering, is slowly healing. She yearns to become Amish, not just pretend that she is. But she fears that her abusive husband will find her and put an end to her subterfuge. Unfortunately, her worst nightmare comes true, resulting in a heart-rending disaster that changes Becca's life forever. Join Elsie, her grandmother, and Becca as they struggle to follow God's plan for them. Feel their pain and confusion when the way grows dark and nothing seems to work out. Experience Becca's joy the first time she realizes that maybe she can really belong somewhere—a place where she's not abused or ridiculed or put down. Cheer all three women on as they work toward lives of love and purpose in this tender romance. Grab Amish Imposter today!
