I bought this hymnal earlier and was very pleased with the cover and the pages. Sadly, I bought another for a gift and this one came with a lower quality cover and pages that were not "torn looking." Also the cover now sports a new circle in the upper left that says "more than 1,000,000 copies sold." Still a good book, just not as described as the original. :-)

An amazing book that is filled not only with timeless hymns that speak to your soul, but also the amazing stories behind each and every single one. It is beautifully written to the point that it draws you into its pages and songs, capturing your soul and awakening a deep love for the "old" songs. I personally am using it as a hymnal study with my 10 year old son for our homeschool and even he loves it! I definitely recommend this book and I will certainly be gathering up the other volumes to this!

The hymn book is great. Has brought back memories of songs of my childhood. Great to learn the history of the songs. I have even started to play my piano again, learning the songs. The company that supplied the book was very professional and gracious with their own followup. Great experience.

love this, bought for my daughter also. don't want her to forget the old hymns, they each have a message

This book tells you about many of the hymns. The formatting is very helpful; one page is the song and the facing page is the history behind it.

enjoying these songs and writings about them

Used it for our Sunday school class. It was an excellent resource and a wonderful read.

Then Sings My Soul (one of two volumes) researches and tells the story of many of the best-known (and a few little-known) hymns. This is a great book for a music lover, for a church choir director or organist, for pastors, and anyone who has always wanted to know "who wrote that hymn?".
