Customer Reviews

A strong and intelligent female heroine and a jaded gentleman. I didn't find myself liking the male lead, Jack. He never became a sympathetic figure to me. His apologies came with a but as he never really took responsibility for his actions. Jack wasn't as redeemed as he could have been.

I really enjoyed this book I couldn't wait to read second book in series. Second book was the opposite skipped a bunch of pages and couldn't wait to finish it. Took a chance on third book and so far it's good.

Great story line. I'm now addicted to this series of books. Can read these stories over and over again.

great read

A love story with a little bit of betrayal and lies all around. It was well told and held my interest. It had a lot of scandalous behavior that the ton would gossip about for weeks! The next story sneak peak has me wondering...

love it

I gave this book five stars because it was a well written story and the characters were great. I recommend this book to anyone who enjoys this kind of romance.

Really enjoyed this book. What more can I say
