The True Vine: Meditations For A Month On John 15:1 - 16

Synopsis

"No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me." Work for Him. Rest in Him. The Vine is the sole provider for the branch. The branch needs only to obey. The care and nutrients the branch receives from the Vine are more than enough to bear all the fruit it can handle. This simple work is written in such a way as to make God's Word clear to anyone who would listen. Andrew Murray was able to reach the young and underprivileged of his day with his straightforward preaching and writing. And as he lived, fully abiding in the Lord, so these words of Christ are made clear for another century. Moody Classics Of all the factors influencing our spiritual growth and development, pivotal books play a key role. This devotional along with Andrew Murray's other devotional "Waiting On God" is bringing about a genuine elevation to a higher level of relationship with my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I have been long familiar with the scriptures upon which these devotionals are based. but Murray has taken me to levels of comprehension that I had never imagined. These are scripturally sound devotionals that are a must for anyone who wants to move to a closer and more intimate relationship with our Lord, Jesus Christ.

The True Vine by Andrew Murray is a classic and I would say a must-read for any true believer and disciple of Christ. Murray outlines John 15 in a very detailed and explanatory manner that goes into the deepest parts of what it means to abide in Christ, to live as a 'vine on the branch'. This can be a tough read, especially for us who've been fed with a lot of milk (soft-teaching) at our church because this book demands a response - are we going to live our lives completely and totally devoted to Christ, or are we going to but cut off and thrown in the fire? Scary stuff, but when you read The True Vine and understand the beauty of surrendering to God, you can't help but want nothing less than to be completely and totally devoted to Him.

Margaret C. Duran gave me a copy of this book. It has so inspired me to have a closer walk with the Lord. He is the Vine, we are the branches. The branch takes on the same characteristics as the vine. The branches job is to produce much fruit for the vine. The Lord is also the husbandman and tends the branches so it can produce fruit. This is a study book you'll probably reread because there is so much meat to help us be what we as Christians should be.

The truths found in the short book can truly change lives. To see the eternal connection of the Vine to the branch and the two fold eternal purpose was both challenging and encouraging. If only more followers of Christ could grab hold of these truths. Highly recommend to anyone seeking a deeper walk with Christ.

Every follower of Christ will benefit from the simple, profound teaching of Andrew Murray. The month of meditations on the True Vine is extremely helpful in understanding Christ's role as the vine and our role as the branch. Applying the teachings from this month can truly change your life.

I love reading this author, but this print is ridiculously small, even smaller than the print size of this review. The print of this book makes it difficult for me to easily read.

Like his other books, this is sacred instruction, leading the reader into a life totally dependent on God Alone. Murray starts with the example of a vine and its fruit and goes into depth, revealing how the reader can mature in Christ. The writing is thorough and easy to understand.

This is one of the most important meditations I've ever used. It is not useful if read through quickly..needs to be slower, to internalize the truths that can be life-changing,if truly applied.
