Allison Travers, has done nothing but salivate and dream about two men- shocked and aroused.

She has to tamp down the lust. The fact that a horrible man wants to crush her hopes, it's just not an option. Allison has to also fend off the unwanted advances of Mr. Matthews. She will find running isn't the answer either. Quinn and Porter have seen and they are on the same page. They only want to make her theirs forever. The fact that one man has her running scared only makes them work that much harder. To make her their Christmas bride! Vanessa Vale has gold in this holiday treasure. Would definitely recommend Bridgewater ménage to anyone looking for sexy, decadent reading!

Allison is on the run from a man trying to force her to marry him or he'll tarnish her good name by telling lies about her. Quinn and Porter aren't about to buy the lies and run after her before she gets to far. Will they convince her to stay, will she have to pick between who she loves more... or will she end up in jail for the lies that are being spread around about her. This was a lovely little short story and I enjoyed reading it.

Their Christmas Bride is a short story much like the rest of the series. It has a more traditional edge in that Quinn & Porter take time (2 years) courting before getting married on Christmas day.

Allison fears that the 2 men she has been crushing over will believe the rumors that are being spread about her and not want her any longer. But Quinn and Porter are not going to let anything so them from claiming Allison for themselves! A great addition to the Bridgewater series. HEA - ménage - M/F/M - no cheating

Love love love so great chemistry is undeniable between all the characters. Ms. Vale really does such a wonderful job on the entire package. But you might need to fan yourself off or take a cold shower after reading. Cause sometimes personally I literally have my pulse rate raised and body become blushed.

This is a wonderful book . It is a little short. It is a beautifully written love story. If you have read the the series you do know some about the characters, but even if you have not they are well written characters.

i recently finished the bridgewater series. it is an awesome, fantastic series. all of the books have spanking and sexy men who love their brides. wonderful author.. can wait for the next series.

This book was very short and with a little hot scene but as all books in this series it's hot Alfa male claiming their women, no surprise there. That's okay if you're prepared for that, witch I was.
