Holiday In France Top 10, Best Things In Lyon Fances Hidden Gems

Synopsis

10 best things in Lyon: France's hidden gems Bicycles, birds, bouchons and beaujolais ... Forget Paris: For many, Lyon is a shining star, and France's gastronomic capital. Bottom of Form Are we with the gastronomic capital seriously? It can tell you. Forget about Paris, it is time to visit France's hidden gem Lyon! Lyon is both the birthplace of nouvelle cuisine, and home to the famous bouchon, and then Lyon is an absolute must-visit for foodies. But there is much more to enjoy in France's third largest city than food. Lyon's old town is UNESCO World Heritage Site, with streets and sights that can compete with Paris, so you will have no trouble to have something to look at while gathering appetite. We have asked Rudi Paton, students at the University of Lyon, to share her top tips for what to see, do, eat and drink in Lyon.

1. On the bike through the beauty Lyon was the first city in Europe that offered bike rental - and it understands you well. Wide, secure bike trails criss-cross the city and the absence of hills makes it easy to jump on a Velib, the best way to explore the city and area. Some of the most picturesque routes run along the city's two rivers, the Rhone and Saone. Rental bikes are perfect; just make sure to check the tires before you settle.
