Customer Reviews

This is my fourth copy I've bought in my career. The new updated version is much more updated, with photos of a view with advancing glaucoma. My only drawback is that it's not in a spiral anymore with heavy card stock paper, but more of a lighter paper. I've taken the spiral apart and always put the cards in cover sheets and a binder to help with it's longevity. I'm still doing it, but have had to cut the pages out of the glued binder. Still does the job, but still want the card stock.
