Wenona Napolitano (Flint, MI) is a writer whose specialty areas include natural health, green living, gardening, crafts, and wedding planning. Her wedding articles have appeared on numerous Web sites, and she is a contributing editor for the Wedding Planning for the Budget Bride and the Natural Health and Beauty sites at GardenandHearth.com. She is a trained bridal consultant and certified floral designer who specializes in weddings. She belongs to several wedding-planning organizations, groups, and online discussion forums. Her passion for natural living is apparent in her life: She practices organic gardening and she and her husband have a small carpet and upholstery cleaning business that uses only natural, nontoxic cleaning products.

Honestly, a lot of the information in this book I already knew, but it is a great guide and has some really good ideas that I hadn't thought of.

Wenona Napolitano did a very good job with this book. It is well researched and full of helpful lists including: edible flowers to use in your decor, pictures you want your photographer to take, and simple recipes and instructions for DIY favors. She also does a great job of providing the "why" of green weddings. The book begins with ten reasons to have a green wedding and includes E Facts, E Alerts, and E Essential environmental tips throughout. A great addition to your green wedding bookshelf.
