Customer Reviews

Meet Leah, a girl who lives in the shadow of her sister, Rachel. From looks to popularity, her super sibling has it all. And just when life couldn't seem more unfair, Rachel wins the heart of Leah's dream guy. Talk about feeling inferior. But in the middle of this pain and rejection, Leah finds hope in God and lands a leading role in His plan to save the world. So maybe nice girls do finish first. TrueLife Bible studies feature real girls facing real problems. Each study takes a look at young women who struggled with issues such as jealousy, heartbreak, and insecurity. Yet through it all, they experienced a God who loves unconditionally. This series features:

- o A flexible schedule that fits your life
- o Easy-to-read Scriptures
- o Fun personal quizzes
- o Room for journaling private thoughts
- o Ideas to help you set life goals

So while drama is here to stay, you'll find the wisdom to handle whatever life throws you next.

In addition to writing, Shannon Primicerio speaks at youth and women's events across the globe. She has a BA in journalism and a minor in biblical studies from Biola University and was the recipient of the San Diego Christian Writers' Guild "Nancy Bayless Award for Excellence in Writing" in 2003. Shannon currently resides with her husband, Michael, in Southern California.
