Ring Of Conspiracy (The Poudre Canyon Saga Book 4)

Synopsis

A short time after Paul Lander marries Two Moons and opens his gun shop in Fort Collins, someone begins stirring up trouble against him for being a "Coesquaw-man." The County Commissioners, headed by Ben Evans, are outraged when the Landers' house is burned down. The arsonists are caught, and the decision is made to appoint a Town Marshal. Paul is chosen with Jeb Pelletier as his Deputy. Controversy continues to swirl around Paul's appointment as Marshal, instigated by new resident Nicholas Dunn. His motives remain a mystery until the two arsonists are shot dead by hidden snipers, and Dunn's true identity is revealed. Violence increases as the Marshals are ambushed, leaving Jeb hanging between life and death. The Pelletiers come down from the canyon bent on helping Paul get to the bottom of the mystery. What takes shape is a ring of conspiracy, a scorpion whose stinger is in Larimer County, and the head half a nation away. A scorpion that is about to be crushed under the Pelletiers' boots.

Customer Reviews

Everyone is holding their breath in George Mason's saloon as the confrontation between Paul Lander & Gyp Crawford is unfolding when Gyp makes disparaging remarks about Two Moons, Paul's wife. After others encourage Paul to, 'let it go' because Gyp is drunk, Paul finally extracts an apology from Gyp & the near death doesn't happen. When Gyp leaves Paul address' the room telling them he knows a lot of them call him "squaw-man" & they can call him whatever they want but NEVER say anything about his wife. This will set the stage for the coming upheaval that puts the town on it's ear. I'm thinking, 'Oh, this is going to be a fine read!' ...and indeed it was! I highly recommend this series to anyone desiring a look into the beginnings of our country & how the settlement of the western states were hotbeds of violence as the white man & the red man learn to live together in peace.

I don't want to rate all of Mr. Fisher's books. I have read them all and love his writings. Would love to read some more.

Another great read in the Poudre Canyon Saga. Quite a mix of plot lines to keep the story moving. Fisher also brought back some old characters to close a few plot lines up.

Interesting plot mixing interest of East and West. Characterization good as always. Descriptive passages not as prevalent and are missed. Good read and reasonable action.

Very well written, holds your interest.. Great series.
