She has been a contributing author to the Shelly Cashman Series since 1992. She also authors many instructor resources for database texts.

got a B in the online class, easy to understand book

Worked perfectly for school.

Exactly as advertised. better than going to my school's corrupt bookstore.

Cost way too much for a spiral book! But it was well written.

I really should have kept this book because any and everything you needed to know about Microsoft is so meticulously detailed and explained in this glorious book. I should have freaking kept it.

I just needed this for a class frfr. Easy work, Can search things fast. It's dope. I recommend it to y'all.

It was a Book i ordered for my Son College Class it was in very good condition and the best deal.

rented the book for school does its job.
