I have yet to use it in Montreal or Quebec City yet (I will take it with me to Montreal in June). But it’s nicely written, concise and has lots of good information (and photos) in it. Recommended.

I bought this for Quebec City. It is ok. A little hard to follow and not as much info as I would have liked. Plus a few things weren’t as described (maybe things have changed since publishing). I would recommend instead the old Quebec walking tours book. It was fantastic.

Got it for my trip to Montreal this summer. Well-organized with nice pictures and all the info needed to plan a lovely visit to Montreal.

Kind of brief even on the cities covered. Little on cities/ towns/sites outside of those, and so much of the province is totally ignored. Info that is provided, however, is helpful.

Very comprehensive guide book for the area!

I will carry this book when I go. Very helpful

Exactly as described, very pleased with purchase

Excellent guide books as are all Fodor's products. We are planning a trip to Eastern Canada and these books will be highly valuable.
