Kelly is haunted by the loss of loved one's. This leaves her unable to cope. She becomes reclusive talking few . It's not until she decides sing again. She tries out for a band that a good friend is managing that her life really begins to change.Nolan's isn't use to putting any real effort into being with women, but when he meets Kelly his thought process quickly shifts. He finds that he wants to, but he sees that she will require him to be more than patient and understanding.Perfect For Me: Road To Whatever..It was a nice and soft love story built up around a good group of additional characters. I was hoping for Linc's story. Maybe Blue will take a different direction. I have my fingers crossed for Crash and the rest of the gang.Thanks, Blue for a nice bw/wm read. They are my favorite.

Overall enjoyed the story based upon two members of an up an coming band trying to get a record contract. Even though the supporting cast added dept, humor, confusion,laughter and love. The band brought Nolan aka Rage and Kelly aka Kitty together but miscommunication, and trust issues could tear them apart.This story was more about Kelly learning to live and love again after experiencing great tragedy. Love the way the author wrote this story and explored the characters faults and inner demons.Well done.

Absolutely amazing!! One of the best rock band stories I've ever read. I felt like I was there with them as everything played out. I love how the connections go way back to the parents and aunts. Nolan and Kelly were the perfect match for each other. I was that they both were able to fall in love with each other on their on terms. Even with the misunderstandings and miscommunication, you could feel the love they have for each other. I'm so glad that they worked everything out and got their HEA.

Ms. Saffire has done it again. Loved this! I hope that we will hear more from these characters. I do know that they make a brief appearance in "Hush 2 - Slow Burn." Hopefully, we'll see them again in their own expanded series.

Nolan and Kelly met when she auditioned to be in the band. The road to becoming a couple was hard for both of them, but they were able to overcome the obstacles to become one. Great book!

I loved! How all the characters had their own personality, the love for each other. Rage and Kitty now that love right there was priceless! If you are a true romantic, you will truly enjoyed this book

Love this BOOK!! My kind of love story it had all the components that makes you not want to put the book down. Love, sweat, tears, jealousy & etc!! Young love but enjoyable by all. Now let's hear about Linc & Mandy's story I think there is something worth reading about!!!

Loved it and every other thing she has written. Can't wait to get to the next books as well.
