Customer Reviews

I read this book, thinking about every small town in which I ever lived . having trucked through oregon , as a driver, I have seen lots of these type towns. i thoughterly enjoyed the book. it was well written without the modern language . the ending after the mystery ending was very good too. made me realize that a book can be good without all the sex and filth that so many new writers think they need to sell their book.

Excellent, clean entertainment! I enjoyed previous writings and look forward to new adventures. Ravenwood sounds like my kind of town. Keep up the good work!

The third book in her series. Wonderful mysteries. She should be a detective herself, because she is always solving the mystery. But she has an inside track. Sometimes people will say things to her that they won't tell the police, and her close male friend is a detective. Sometimes she comes up with the wrong person, but someone says something a certain way and she comes up with the right one.

I am hooked on Ravenwood, Oregon!!! I love Amanda and James!!! I CAN NOT WAIT for the fourth book. I just found the first book 3 days ago...and have read one a day. I can't wait for the fourth book...and it comes out Next Month! Okay, Miss Desn...you better have book 5 pretty well written, because I need to see how Amanda and James's relationship develops...Such WONDERFUL characters! I recently retired from being a Special Ed. Teacher and decided I was tired of reading informational and teaching materials...I found the cozy reader genre...and I'm hooked...Thanks for such a Sweet, Quirky, Fantastic little town...I only wish I could live somewhere like that....THANKS, Teresa Bryant Loved this book. It's the 3rd in her series. She's a wonderful author and from the moment you pick up her books they draw you right into the story. I love the way she describes the town, people, scenery. You'll love her books!

I typically don't write reviews, but I really love this series! I stumbled upon the Ravenwood Cove cozy mystery series while looking for something easy and interesting to read. Happy to say I've read them all, and very quickly! Can I live in Ravenwood Cove now please? I love these books, they're such a delight to read. A good combination of mystery and suspense without making your mind turn too much for pre-bedtime reading! Would happily read the series again and again, cannot wait for more!

Although fat snowflakes on the coast are a bit farfetched, it was great fun. I didn't figure out how it was done this time, had the wrong person in mind. Nicely placed. She might try more conversation and less explaining, but the final crisis was well done. The storm was very realistic for the coast.

I feel like I want to spend some time at the Ravenwood Inn - without murders while I am there. This is a well written mystery that reminds us how small towns work. The characters are wonderful. I could not put this down until I finished - to the detriment of my chores! I highly recommend this book.
