First Trip To Lebanon: The Untold Tips And Tricks (PassingTheKnowledge Series)

Synopsis

This is a pocket guide full of untold tips and tricks on how to enjoy your first trip to Lebanon. It does not replace a travel guide but instead it will tell you practical information about Lebanon that you'd normally learn about only by talking to local people and by asking them specific questions. This guide is part of the PassingTheKnowledge series. It is designed to be a very short and funny read, actually you can read it in less than 30 minutes. Topics such as: Language, Religion, currency, how to get around, how to avoid tourist traps, how to avoid getting scammed, where to find certain kinds of entertainment, information about drugs and alcohol, etc...are discussed.

Customer Reviews

This is the MUST read if you're planning a trip to Lebanon for business, pleasure, or whatever reasons! Unlike other standard guidebooks, this gem has tons of practical tips and advice that you must know before flying out to Lebanon. The author himself spent most of his life in Lebanon and is living in the US now, so he knows what travelers need to know from a foreigner's perspective. The way he conveys information is also very straightforward and friendly, just like you're hearing from your old friend living in Lebanon.

This is not much more than a school paper written about Beirut. Very little information unless you're looking to rent a prostitute in a gentleman's club.

This book is extremely limited in content. I would label it a pamphlet actually, not a book. It took about 5 minutes to read.
