"...For all his gravity and his devotion to accurate expression, Keillor writes hilarious stories." -- Esquire
"When we hear Garrison Keillor... we realize how much the page does not convey, how crucial that miraculous voice is..." -- Chicago Tribune
Grammy Award Nominee for Best Spoken Word of 1992. -- NARAS
In Stories Keillor reads his own short stories without an audience. Ranging from baseball to the perils of fame, the stories are humorous, serious and contemplative. As always, Keillor doesn't develop individual character voices, but rather illustrates their place within the community by his tone and inflection [brought to you by HighBridge Audio]. -- Audiofile, April 1994

GARRISON KEILLOR is America's favorite storyteller. For more than 35 years, as the host of A Prairie Home Companion, he has captivated millions of listeners with his weekly News from Lake Wobegon monologues. A Prairie Home Companion is heard on hundreds of public radio stations, as well as America One, the Armed Forces Networks, Sirius Satellite Radio, and via a live audio webcast. Keillor is also the author of several books and a frequent contributor to national publications including Time, The New Yorker, and National Geographic, in addition to writing his own syndicated column. He has been awarded a National Humanities Medal from the National Endowment of the Humanities. When not touring, he resides in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Funny.

He seems to be a bit rambling in this. Usually, his voice keeps me memorized and hanging on to his every word. This makes me want to hit fast forward to get to the point of the stories. I love him though, so I will give him a break on this one :-)

Not as good as the weekly radio show.

This is G. Keillor at his best. By stepping out of the Lake Wobegon box he expands to a number of unusual side trips that are a joy.

I had received this collection about 10 years ago as a present. I lost it. I like the "Babe" story the best. I bought it just to listen to that again. I think the author is amazing. I like to listen to his stories while riding on long trips. His voice is so soothing. His stories take me to a fun place and I can visualize the characters so well.

These stories are fine for a while. After a while, for me, they just get repetitive and old. Enough is enough. Sure, give them a try but a steady diet is too much for me.

My husband loves Car Talk and Garrison Keillor and listens to them every week on radio and when they are not on radio he is playing the CDs. He has a huge collection of books and CDs and I have listened to some so many times I could repeat them word for word. Please make some new ones !

Garrison Keillor is the consummate story-teller! This volume takes us on journeys through different personalities and draws us into the story. Each character comes to life - and often, laughter - in the lyrical voice of Keillor. This is a collection worth owning and sharing!
