Come Again: Sex Toy Erotica

Synopsis

In the latest collection from award-winning editor Rachel Kramer Bussel, sex toys take on a life of their own as they bring couples, singles and strangers to new heights of pleasure. From two couples who happen to share the same remote controlled device, to some very hot rocks, a perfectly icy bed, a Superman dildo, and a day in the life of a very lucky vibrator. This fun collection will give you plenty of ideas for toys you'd like to try, and ones you wish someone would invent! From "The Secret Shopper" and "The Cure for the Common Lay," these stories in Come Again are best read with your favorite sex toy handy. Sex toys are more popular than ever and make life so much more fun! Nowadays, there are sex toys for every occasion and every act. And, to add to the joy of toys, they also come in all sorts of playful designs, from sweet little bunny vibrators to glamorous glittery harnesses, feather light smackers to heavy duty paddles. Whatever your favorite playtime is, you can probably find exactly the right toy--or make your own! Rachel Kramer Bussel, toy enthusiast and self-confessed spanko has gathered a delightful set of stories sure to give you ideas to try at home, or wherever your nearest toy box may be!

Customer Reviews

Inspired me to add to my own toy collection.*LOST & POUNDED: a story with a real 'happy ending'*IN THE PINK: a new variation in office relationships*DALIA'S TOY: a real 'toy' story*VEGETABLE LOVE: gourmet guide for marinating sumptuous vegans*BIKERY: a definitely 'novel' story - the best of the best*STANDARD OF CARE: should be a doctors creed

These were fun stories! I would like to find another book like this. Toys are fun and even more fun together!

Hot stories, just long enough to jerk-off too.Lovely stories about Toys for Twats (and bungholes, too!)

It's ok

A very good book. Couldn't put it down.

No story longer than a chapter. No characters to love or hate.No reason to read more than one vignette after another until boredom sets in.

"Come Again" is an anthology of 24 erotic stories of with the use of a sex-toy in mostly heterosexual pairings in a range of scenes from vanilla to light-kink.Although many other stories are written about the use of vibrators on women, this anthology has stories with others (even ones not usually thought of as as a sex-toys).Although one can research the general intended use for a sex toy, there is little information on how they are used. Some readers might consider ANY scene that has the use of a sex-toy as kink but some of the "toys" in these tales are common everyday items put to creative uses. Sex toys are no longer for the "down low" but are widely available in "proper" sex shops and...hardware stores. The anthology illustrates the range of possibilities of how sex-toys are used in erotic encounters.Another consideration is that some guys still think the use of a sex toy is a sort of failure of the male apparatus. These stories illustrate how toys are a supplement and not a substitute for erotic encounters. One story (E. Bellamy's "Superman Dildo") deals with this issue directly. Sybil Rush's "Standard of Care" illustrates how a "medical" device leads into deeper sexual satisfaction.Ms. Bussel has an apparent knack for selecting really hot erotica...or has connections to some of the best erotica writers (she also writes a very engaging tale in this anthology). The tone of the stories are sex-positive and not the usual male-centric porn from the past. For potential readers who think sex-toys are too "racy" check out Susan St. Aubin's "Vegetable Love", Corrine A. Silver's "Dalia's Toy", Dena Hankins' "Gift" or Elizabeth Coldwell's "Prickles". I was really moved by Rachel Kramer Bussel's "Claws Out" on how a sex-toy can deepen the bond between two people. Corrine A. Silver's "Dalia's Toy" is a tale about a character you think "would never" dive into kink with her willing partner, but does. I could also relate to Oliver Hollandaise's "Bikery" as I know girls who fix their bikes and ride through the same neighborhood as the story is set in. The writing quality is excellent (only a few minor typos). I rate the anthology as: fiction: 5/5 erotica: 5/5 (hot!) writing: 5/5 I received an ARC for an honest review.

S-x toys have always been my thing. I mean whatever makes s-x better or simply just something different from the usual is great in my book. This collection of erotica went above my expectations. I liked that some stories included known toys however others focused on futuristic ideas of toys and everyday objects as toys. If you enjoy erotica and s-x toys, then you should pick this one up. I have read most of Rachel Kramer Bussel's erotic story collections and have yet to be disappointed. As always some stories did stand out to me, those were: Surprise by Katya Harris Lost and Pounded by Zee Giovanni Vegetable Love by Susan St. Aubin The Cure for the Common Lay by Valerie Alexander Claws Out by Rachel Kramer Bussel Sex Kitten by Errica Leikos The Secret Shopper by Kitten Boheme Must Love Dolls by Giselle Renarde My Life as a Vibrator by Livia Ellis All of the stories were good, but like I mentioned these were my favorites. Again, I really enjoyed this read.
