Andrew understands Haiti and communicates his experience well. He described places I know with accuracy. I enjoyed reading his account.

As a wacky person once said...there are known knowns and unknown knowns. With this series of blogs you get to explore both. I'm a gringo that was very interested in taking a trip to Haiti. I wanted to get a non guide book perspective. Boots on the ground sort of thing. Mr. Crone does that. Unfortunately for me I may have been scared straight.

Everyone going to Haiti for the first time should read the Brandt guide and Journey through Haiti. It's a quick read and provides an advance of what will probably be your own initial reaction.

Helpful.
