Customer Reviews

I took this book with me on a walking tour near Morlaix. I was basically figuring things out as I went along, and this book was remarkably useful. I think it's perfect for the person who is beyond wanting to stay in hostels, but isn't quite ready for expensive hotel rooms. They discuss many inexpensive places that I never would have found otherwise. It was also one of the most detailed guides I could find--most guides dealt with all of Brittany or Brittany AND Normandy in a guide of similar size, and hence didn't discuss nearly as many of the smaller villages or towns. The routard guide mentioned many smaller towns and had much more thorough listings of cafes/hotels/restaurants for these places. Apparently Routard is like the Lonely Planet in France--if the Lonely Planet books appeal to you, this probably will as well.
