The Prisoner And The Kings: How One Man Changed The Course Of History

Synopsis

The Prisoner and the Kings is a riveting historical account of a prisoner in a Turkish penal colony and the letters he sent to religious and secular leaders that changed the world. Between 1867 and 1873 a solitary prisoner in a Turkish penal colony wrote a series of letters to the kings and emperors of the day, predicting with amazing accuracy the course of modern history: the fall of several nations, the overthrow of certain individual monarchs, the decline of specific religious institutions, the rise of communism, and the threat of nuclear weapons. The prisoner was Bahauallah, Prophet and Founder of the Bahai Faith, one of the most remarkable figures in this or any age.

Customer Reviews

This is the missing puzzle of why humanity and civilisation is in a mess right now. The entire world and its leaders have missed something that was too well known to be missed yet they all missed it. How the Promised One of all Faiths was put in an underground yet proclaimed Himself to all the world leaders and how one by one their Kingdoms fell after ignoring His Call. Even now Christianity and Islam are experiencing a massive decline all because they ignore what they were not supposed to ignore. They were all waiting for this but missed it.

The world hasn't woken up to the fact that Baha'u'llah is the Manifestation from God for today. He wrote to the rulers in the 1860's., stated who He was and exhorting the leaders to rule with justice and equity. The only ruler who answered Him was Queen Victoria. All the Kingdoms fell except hers. Wonder why!! It is all a part of history and written down. The World is clueless except for a few who have accepted Baha'u'llah. A person becomes a Baha'i through their own volition, there is no conversion.

Inspirational and interesting account of Baha'i history.

Love reading about untold history, it fast passed and entertaining and True. Would make a great movie or play

Mr. Sears was an accomplished writer especially about his Beloved Baha'i Faith!

This is a must read by all. It is a riveting historical account of the life of Baha'u'llah, the founder of the Baha'i Faith.

Bahai teacher William Sears presents The Prisoner and the Kings: How One Man Changed the Course of History, a historical account of the Prophet Bahau'llah, founder of the Bahai faith. Between 1867 and 1873, Bahau'llah was a solitary prisoner in a Turkish penal colony who wrote a series of letters to kings and emperors, predicting the course of modern history with surprising accuracy. The Prisoner and the Kings examines what Bahau'llah's letters have to say about the fall of kingdoms, the decline of religious institutions, all of which happened in his day, as well as what his predictions can tell us about humanity in the twenty-first century. An amazing account sure to fascinate readers of all faiths, especially recommended for Bahai religious history and college library shelves.
