This three month tracker makes watching what I eat so much easier. Both my husband and I use it and makes shedding weight easier.

The journal isn't what I expected. It's way smaller than the last one I had which could have been a good thing but there isn't a lot of room to write things down. I found that sometimes I was using two lines to write down one thing and then by dinner I didn't have any more room left to write my foods down. Other than that, it's the same as the other books. Just smaller.

Regardless of the diet plan followed..but specifically designed to be used with the WW points system. great way to obtain this journal outside the WW meeting.

I love this journal. I've been following flex points for over a year now and this journal makes it so much easier. You track your food and points daily, and there's a check off at the beginning of the week for every day. Then on the daily pages you can check off your water, fruits & veggies, dairy and oils. It's helpful. Yes, it may be more expensive than at the meetings, but if you are doing this on your own, it's worth it.

I just bought this book last week. While it arrived on time, just be clear that you are paying nearly $16 for one book. Those of you who attend meetings know that this same book is sold for $5.99 there. If you have access to a meeting, I would strongly urge you to buy it there. It's the same concept. Nothing really different with the new version.

thanks so much for shipping so fast i love these books help with my diabetes as well
