Great book for food adventurer this book will give the proper Scandinavian taste on your foods easy instructions are followed in this book that will make your job easy to bring the food on your table i have tested some them my favorite is lublin cheese babka and polish style pickles. I have a lot to try yet though. The only low part of this book is lack of image, including it this will be true gem on cooking book. still this book is worth a recommendation.

have been making sausage for years now and came across this book. I have now expanded my sausage making into many varieties due to this book. But I still use my grandmas recipe for fresh polish sausage. :-) Being of polish heritage, it has been great to produce varieties that my mom remembers from her youth. It is not just a bunch of recipes, they go into history and explanations of procedures and meat selection and all kinds of stuff you will never find in just a recipe book.

Awesome! The book was a birthday present to a friend of Polish origin. It was a hit. We prepared a meal from it for her birthday dinner party and everyone loved it. The recipes are presented in an easy to follow way with the pictures helping for appeal and guidance. The birthday girl confirmed the originality of the recipes. Really worth recommending!

Some of the recipes were interesting. Lots of repetitive ingredients. Could use editing. Example: The Simple Borscht recipe tells you to cube the canned beets, but the instructions only tell you to use the beet juice. Pictures and

Some of the recipes were interesting. Lots of repetitive ingredients. Could use editing. Example: The Simple Borscht tells you to cube the canned beets, but the instructions only tell you to use the beet juice. Categories in the table of content and pictures of recipes would be ideal.

I've eaten Polish dishes for 2 weeks when I stayed there and I really missed them already. Glad I encountered this recipe book and I asked my brother to prepare us an authentic Polish dinner as a family. It was an enjoyable night having those dishes right on our table. Good food, good company and it was perfect.

This book contains a great variety of Polish sausage recipes. The measurements are metric and the instructions are detailed and clear. This book is for the serious sausage maker. Nice book, Lots of good recipes and techniques.

Not one recipe looked authentic to me

Awesome cookbook! I got it for my mother and she's tried quite a few recipes and we've loved them!
