Time To Stand Up For Myself! How To Become A Self-Advocate (Teen Topics)

Synopsis

This guide is for teenagers with disabilities to learn how to stand up for themselves and advocate for their goals. The guide discusses the laws (IDEA and ADA), developing a transition plan, establishing goals, considering strengths and weakness, and communicating about their disability. The guide includes strategies for problem solving to overcome challenges, reaching goals, preparing for meetings, communicating needs, and finding support. Teen Topics are short guides that target important skills and strategies in an easy to read format allowing for repeated review of the concepts.
