Customer Reviews

I used this for my recent travels to the UK. It was helpful to have a reference, where I used to confirm more than plan my intended activities. As I was traveling with a larger family, I have limits which were not as well addressed by this book. My observation was this guide is better suited for individuals and couples. Overall it was an affordable means to have confidence is what I was doing.

Good information in an easy-to-use format, but little city- or region-specific information or sample trip itineraries like other travel guides provide.

Exceptionally informative and has many detailed maps....overall layout very clear....

This guide is very easy to read and navigate. Well organized and thought out. Would definitely purchase it again.

Did not have a lot of detail about the suburban counties outside London, eg Berkshire. I would suggest adding those areas.

Best guidebook series out there. Great recommendations. Absolute lifesaver

Lonely Planet is our go to guide - easy to search with a lot of information. Unfortunately, this guidebook does not reflect the English Heritage pricing increases for 2017. Disappointing the March increases weren't included. I would suggest you round up for planning purposes.
