Customer Reviews

This is a ripoff of the real Thug Kitchen...beware!!!!

Sorry but the author is playing off a truly inventive book "Thug Kitchen" and there is nothing special about the recipes in this very short "book".

Thug Waffles: Waffle Recipes To Die For - Dangerously Delicious, Criminally Sweet & Savory Belgian Syrup Wafer Kitchen Cookbook
Some of the recipes look to be a good healthy choice, others have too many bad ingredients and fat. There are no pictures and no nutritional information. Potato waffles would be my first choice to make. Like that cornmeal and wheat flour is used.

I have a couple of the other "THUG" cook books so I figured I'd give this 1 a try. I've done most of the recipes and I can say I'm impressed because I only thought of waffles in the plain old traditional sense, this changes that. What I like best about it is I've made a change to eat better, I do vegan during the week and eat some meat on the weekends but this keeps me in line with vegan eating when I make a recipe on the weekends.

Bought this as a gift for my son. He started reading it right away. He said it's written just about the way he tells his friends how to make something. He liked the alternatives given for recipes (i.e.: "don't have a jello mold? Any (curse word) container will work" If you find curse words offensive don't buy this book

Wow, I love all the information and valuable recipes for a more healthy life.

I've only made a couple of the recipes so far, but so far so good.

I own 2 waffle irons, I have since I moved out on my own. I love waffles and love to experiment with new flavors, so I was very happy to see new ideas in this cookbook. I love their names!! Easy to follow instructions and mostly inexpensive ingredients, so I would recommend to cooks looking to expand their waffle repertoire! Photos are a suggestion, because they give us, the cooks, the confidence in the final product and in themselves, to believe they can accomplish the recipe, in the first place. Thank you for the new recipes!
