I was motivated to read this book by allergies I've had for decades and my belief that health practices based on the natural means of God's creation would be most effective. I wasn't disappointed. Dr. Colbert addresses environmental and dietary causes and presents practical steps to eliminate or reduce those causes. Even without using his guidelines for an elimination diet, I was able to identify several sources of my allergies and significantly reduce my symptoms.

Pretty good book, my problem with it is the title leads you to believe there is a cure for allergies. There is not. Unless you receive super natural healing from Jesus. That's what I'm praying and believing for!

I liked this book by Dr. Colbert and just ordered one from .com for my father who is suffering from allergies to dust mites and chemicals in food. I think the first review that had one star had a most hateful attitude. Dr. Colbert really loves the Lord and it shows in his books. He desires for people to be healthy and whole and so does the Lord. He is our Father and wants his children to be well. What father doesn't? Conventional allergy treatments such as desensitization shots are helpful but sometimes people need more. My daughter had 5 years of allergy shots and still suffers from allergies. We shy away from drugs because drugs cause side effects and they cause you to lose nutrients as they are detoxified by the body. currently our daughter is on a homeopathic treatment prescribed by her naturopathic doctor and it is helping. Dr. Colbert is not I repeat not into New Age type of thinking and remedies. This person the first review insulted Dr. Colbert's integrity and my opinion of this person is that they are mean spirited and judgemental!
