Cards For Brianna: A Mom's Messages Of Living, Laughing, And Loving As Time Is Running Out

Synopsis

Though the end of your life may be near, it doesn't mean you have to stop living. After being diagnosed in her early thirties with terminal breast cancer, Heather McManamy felt like her life was crumbling. Her "normal" vanished and was replaced with multiple surgeries and dozens of chemo treatments that could briefly extend her life, but would not prevent her inevitable death. With an effervescent spirit and a new perspective, Heather started to live each day as if it were her last. She learned to soak in the moment, appreciate the beauty around her, and celebrate her blessings. She also pondered her daughter's future journey without her mother and gracefully prepared for it. Heather began to write greeting cards to Brianna. Cards for her first day of school, her sixteenth birthday, her wedding day. Cards for when things were going right and when they were going wrong. Cards for when Brianna would need her mother—whether in five years or in fifty years—and Heather wouldn't be able to be there for her. Cards for Brianna is the story of one mother's powerful love for her young daughter and Heather's unmatched experiences, laced with laughter and charm, are a reminder to never take a single day for granted.

Heather provided such a beautiful gift in sharing her story and I feel so grateful that she did. It normally takes me months to read a book and this one I finished in a couple days as I couldn't put it down. She shows such honesty, humility and perspective that you feel you are with her during her journey. I appreciate that she doesn't sugar coat the experience so others can learn her real perspective but she also has such great sense of humor too! As a hospice worker and mom of a 4 year old I really took her advice to make sure every day matters, find the value in things and not take these moments for granted. She truly left a wonderful gift behind to her daughter, husband and the rest of us so thank you!

Read this in less than an hour (blessing and curse too read that fast). Rare is it too embrace feelings of hope, love, laughter, fear and sadness in such a short time from the words of others. An absolute honor this author allowed us into her life of living. This truly is a "must-read".

When I heard that Heather would be publishing a book I knew right away it would be good. The book surprised me by being even better than expected! It made me laugh, it made me cry, it made me laugh some more. It made me hug my kids a little tighter, and tell my husband how much I love him an extra time. This book is an read, easy because it's about such a simple concept: live, laugh, love and make everyday matters! Once I started I found it hard to put it down. Having two toddlers running around, I was surprised that I managed to finish it within the first 24 hours of opening my mail box.

Cards for Brianna is a book that will make you shed many tears. It really makes you appreciate every single moment you have on this earth. This book has changed my life, I highly recommend it to everyone.

This book brings happy and sad memories of conversations with Heather during my breast cancer treatments. I could be at my lowest point and she had the words to turn me around. The day she left this world was the worst day for many of us that she touched with her friendship and words. It's taken me several months to buy this boom because I know my tears will come. My wish is if you buy this book that you have a greater appreciation for life as Heather did. I'm glad I have her words in front of me.....

Tragedy Done beautifully Well written This book will impact your life I ache for her family and friends
God bless

I found Heather (the author) through a Facebook post that went viral. I immediately fell in love with her spirit and devotion to her daughter. I knew I had to read the book. The book is a tear jerking reading experience. It makes me appreciate the little things in life more now than ever. The ONLY thing I disliked is the fact it ended. . . I could've read on and on and on. ãfÂ ã Å,ã Æœã Å

I had the privilege of being Heather's FB friend throughout her journey with the insidious disease that took her young life. Since I am a breast cancer survivor it really hurt my heart to see her suffer, yet remain so brave and courageous. Loved that she wrote such a touching book that will keep her memory alive for so many,
