The Fire, The Revelation And The Fall (The Epic Order Of The Seven)

Synopsis

Paul's third missionary journey is underway as he heads to Ephesus where he'll establish a ministry base for Asia, and as Max, Liz and Nigel work behind the scenes to make vital connections, uncover plots and inspire the formation of a New Testament. Little does Paul realize that his letters to the Philippians, Romans, and Corinthians will become the seminal letters of the Christian faith. Reunited with Dr. Luke, Paul uncovers a plot on his life by the Jews yet boldly travels on to Jerusalem where he is arrested and imprisoned in Caesarea for two years. Luke takes advantage of this time to interview Mary, John and other eyewitnesses of Jesus to capture in his journal the greatest story ever told. All the while murder plots and power struggles abound in Rome with the rise of the infamous Nero as emperor. When Paul finally appeals to Caesar before Governor Festus, so begins a treacherous voyage to Rome and a surprising encounter with the next generation of the Roman family of Antonius, Julius the Roman Centurion. After months at sea and a harrowing shipwreck on Malta, Paul arrives in Rome yet must spend two years under house arrest before his trial before Emperor Nero. Julius arranges for his brother Theophilus to be Paul's legal counsel in Rome, and Luke writes two letters (Luke and Acts) to help him prepare Paul's case. Hope abounds when Nero releases Paul and drops the charges of the Jews. He is finally free to continue his mission to spread the good news of Jesus. But the Enemy has other plans, and manifests once more as the evil lion Lucifer to come after the Christians. A wave of persecution sweeps across the Roman Empire as believers are forced underground and face horrific death through Nero's cruel whims or in the arena with lions. Peter and Paul are finally arrested and sentenced to death in Rome, but not before they write several last letters to strengthen the church. Nero's excesses spell his doom, and a new era of emperors is ushered in with the rise of the Flavian Dynasty. With the rise of Domitian comes increased persecution of the church and the exile of John on Patmos. He laments being the last remaining disciple but his hope is restored by the Revelation and release from Patmos. This heart-gripping, action-packed adventure concludes a two-book saga that brings to life the events of Acts and the birth of Christianity while showing how each book of the New Testament came to be.

5 Star Review by Rabia Tanveer for Readers' Favorite I really loved the description of Rome. You can almost smell the air, the dust, and taste the water. The descriptions are so dynamic and vivid that you can actually imagine the scenes with crystal clarity in your mind. Imperial Rome is so majestic and fascinating, it really showed the amount of research Jenny L. Cote did in order to achieve this level of perfection. It felt hyper-real and so consuming. I love a book that makes me forget where I am. This novel just makes you read, read and read. Kudos for the job well done!

Award winning author Jenny L. Cote developed an early passion for God, history and young people, and beautifully blends these passions together in her two fantasy fiction series, The Amazing Tales of Max and Liz® and Epic Order of the Seven®. Likened to C.S. Lewis by book reviewers and bloggers, Jenny L. Cote opens up the world of creative writing for students of all ages and reading levels through fun, highly interactive workshops. Students are certain to laugh, be surprised, and have fun learning (without realizing it!) Above all students will be inspired to write colorful, creative stories and will want to read. Jenny has appeared to over 17,000 students at lower, middle, high school and universities in the US and abroad. Jenny patterns her workshops after specific books she has written, showing students exactly how she crafts her books, from research to character development to imagery. It gives students real hands-on tools used by an author, with a behind the scenes look at how a book comes together, and what fun it can be. Surprising grand entrances, fun props, and humorous questions keep students engaged from the first minute, with smiles and hands raised to be chosen to do the next fun thing! Jenny is available to speak to schools, churches, libraries, professional and community groups. To schedule a talk, reading and/or book signing, or interview please contact Ann McColl, Marketing Manager at ann@epicorderoftheseven.com. A native of Norfolk, Virginia, Jenny holds two marketing degrees from the University of Georgia and Georgia State University. Prior to writing her career focused on strategic planning and marketing, specifically in healthcare at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. She now writes and speaks full time and lives in Roswell, Georgia, with her husband Casey and son Alex. Jenny is active in the Student Ministry at Dunwoody Baptist Church, and enjoys reading, research, museums, music, travel, meeting people, fitness and finding any excuse she can to get to the beach.

My 10 year old says he liked how the book described the way Paul and Peter preached and how the author took the real story and added interest to it with the animals traveling through history to help the apostles. He also liked how the author used her own dog, Max, and wrote him into the Biblical story. My son is a voracious reader and loves the length (550+ pages) and quality of both this story as well as her other books. Jenny Cote is one of his favorite authors and he is always excited to get one of her books. He is eagerly waiting for her next book.

I never get tired of hearing about God's love for mankind and I know that innocent little children love to hear this to. Now what better way to tell it than to put some wonderful animals into it and capture the attention of young and old alike. After all God and animals have one very special trait in common. They both love and do not hate.

My kids LOVE these books. Absolutely recommended. My oldest reads them himself and then I'll read them aloud to the others. Jenny Cote does a fantastic job making the events of the Bible come alive in the most exciting ways. And who doesn't love cute animals with all different kinds of accents?!? I have fun with that when I'm reading.

My 11 year old daughter is reading this series and cannot put it down. I love that she can be entertained by a fiction story of animals but there are scriptures and bible lessons that are absolutely accurate as a basis for the stories. Good clean books for this age group are tough to find and this one is a winner!

My son loves Jenny Cote's books. They are exciting and keep him away from the technology.

My daughter has absolutely loved these books. There was a mourning period when she got to the end of the series. She learned so much bible history while being entertained.

Nice job!

Jenny has done it again! We can't wait for the next one.
